

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 5, 1895.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The owner of a newspaper represents a high value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" from the public. The owner can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods, groceries, hardware, and legitimate business concerns. His columns are in stock in trade and advertising is a part of his business, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Crisis

The League for Free Notices have become so hard-usage that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Notices

Two columns, free, or other public entertainment where it is charged, for a fee of $1.00 per column, per issue, etc. The League will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and herefore this will be the irreverable rule. This, however,

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed two lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The League for Free Notices in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and a cent for each subsequent insertion. A customer orders a "line" and the League for Free Notices says to the bookkeeper, "He is to be charged for two months—two times—the bill is $1.00." What is it then? It is $1.00. It is a controversy, (it was probably by an icy fusile. Now, it is not a question of right or wrong, but the League for Free Notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite arrangement at the outset, and the termination will be peace all around.

ALL matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mrs. Ida Collier of Maysville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sharp

Miss Frankie Morrison of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Rogers.

Mr. Thad F. Moore of Dover was a pleasant caller on THE LEDGER yesterday.

Mrs. George W. Welsh of Danville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Coshran.

Mrs. T. C. Robinson has returned to her home at Winchester after a pleasant visit to Mrs. John Hall of this city.

Mrs. Louis Yockey of Newport, who has been here to attend the funeral of her niece, Lillian Martin, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford of Covington, after a visit of several days to Mr. Crawford's parents in this city, returned home yesterday.

Miss Nettie Powell, after a visit to her parents in this city of several days, returned to Covington yesterday, where she will make her future home with her brother, Mr. John Powell.

Fire Insurance—Duley & Baldwin.

Ice Cream Soda now on tap at H. Lins.

Chapped hands and faces are treated by Cheowen's Cream Lotion. Try it.

D. M. Runyon, Fire Insurance, reliable companies represented; no wildcats.

Mr. John Felius is smiling again. Every time he smiles you can bet your life it's a boy.

Public Auction.

I will offer at public auction, on the premises, one mile West of Lewiston, Ky., on Saturday, March 9th, 1895, at 1 o'clock p. m., all my stock, farm implements, household and kitchen furniture and harness. Terms of sale: On sums of $5 and over, a credit of twelve months will be given; on sums under $5, cash in hand. Note required with good security.

WILLIAM GARBY.

Washington Opera-house

4--NIGHTS--4

COMMENCING

WED. MAR. 6

Parquet—Dress Circle..... 25

Balcony..... 25

Galery..... 15

Seats now on sale at Nelson's Haberdashery.

DAILY LEDGER

AS IN THE GASCOIGNE'S CASE.

The ship is here," the agent said;

The men, they passed the docks;

The wind blew over seas of dread;

And whispered of the rocks!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,

Not a fifty women in the crowd

Smiled as they looked to sea.

For well they knew that the grand

Old ship should ride the squall,

And bring its passengers to land.

They'd hug and kiss 'em all!

And when stern men were wailing loud,</

Business Ledger

DAILY BUSINESS SUNDAY
THOMAS A. DAVIS,
EDITOR AND OWNER

OFFICE—100½ Main Street, Mayfield, Ky., 10th floor.
SUBSCRIPTIONS—$15 a year.
One Year—$1.25
Three Years—$3.75
Five Years—$7.50
Ten Years—$15.00
For Remittance
Payable to carrier or agent of month.

TO ADVERTISERS

Advertising rates uniform and reasonable and made known on application to the office.

Advertisers who fail to get the Business Ledger regularly, please confer a favor by reporting the fact at the office.

AMERICA FOR AMERICAS AMERICANS

REHINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD.

In 1890 William McKinley was burned in effigy in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1891 William Wilson was dined and wooed in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts.

Your attention is called to the Master Commissioner's notices in this issue.

Don't forget the first "Recital" of the Clerical and Orchestral Unions at the Opera house this evening. Admission 25 cents; reserved seats 35 cents. Everybody goes.

The funeral of little Charley Devin occurred this morning from St. Patrick's Church on Lime-stone street. The heights of St. John's Drift Corps, of which he was a member, acted as pall-bearers.

The Independent of New York, for the first week in March, will contain an article on Kentucky's advantages by Representative McCrory. The issue will contain a number of articles by well known men on the industrial advantages of the South.

That staunch old Methodist, John Wesley, once said: "Give a hundred men who fear nothing but God, hate nothing but sin, and are determined to know nothing among men, but Jesus Christ and him crucified, and I will set the world on fire with them."

The Grand Jury of Logan county returned an indictment for wilful murder against William Johnson, who is alleged to have killed James Johnson at South Union a few weeks ago. The murderer of Johnson placed a shotgun by the victim's side in order to create an impression that it was a case of suicide. Thirty indictments in all were returned by the Grand Jury during the session.

COURT.

In the absence of Judge Hutchins yesterday, caused by the death of his mother, Mrs. Evaline Hutchins Squire Bramel, in accordance with the statute filled the vacancy. The following orders were made:

The liquor license of John Dersch & Co. was transferred to B. H. Bramblett. Isaac Scott, colored, a painter, was sent to the County Infirmary.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Miss Nettie Frost Received a Very Ugly Fall Friday.

Nettie, the little three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. James Frost, who is in the West End, narrowly escaped a broken limb, if not death, Friday afternoon.

The little one was swinging in a hammock, when the stool that held one end of it to the ceiling flew out.

The child was dashed to the floor, where she was found a moment later unconscious.

She remained in that condition for several hours, but, on being revived, was found to be only slightly hurt.

Don't Stop Tobacco—How to Cure Yourself While Doing It.

The tobacco habit grows on a man until his nervous system is seriously affected, impairing his health. To quit smoking is to give up a habit that cannot be cured by any case of Cataract that has been cured by Halle's Cuttermilk.

June 4,
18
94

that is the date of a letter from Mr. J. S. E. Brown, 524 Pacific Ave., Dallas, Tex.—He lost his strength from overwork, like so many others, and took Brown's Iron Bitters.

He says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the best medicine I have taken. I had been suffering for a year from a bad cold, caused by overwork, and two bottles removed my strength entirely. I am glad to say so.

No miracle, but just another case brought by Brown's Iron Bitters. Do you take it?

LOOK FOR CROSSED RED LINES ON WRAPPER

BROWN CHEM. CO. BATTLE, Ia.

SE Bullenger the Jeweler.

Mrs. Sussi Foley of Woodford county, after dressing herself for burial, took her life with morphine.

The fine black mare belonging to Mr. Harry S. Wood was shipped to Mr. N. C. Ridgway, Palmhurst, Ky.

Over 1000 people are said to have frozen to death in the United States during the recent cold weather.

Labor organizations in New York, representing 110,000 voters, are preparing to petition the Legislature for more liberal Sunday laws.

The female weavers at the Owensboro Wooden Mills are on a strike. The women are mad because a 10 per cent. cut in their wages will be restored.

The following item appeared in Saturday's Courier-Gazette, "Great Demand for Cotton," there being a demand for missionary labor in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, Australia, and New Jersey. There is need for missionary work everywhere except right here. Yet there is a family named Destley of Bath county, seven in number, six of whom, the father and five sons, were imprisoned in the penitentiary for life yesterday, some for conspiring to murder a man named Mark Kline and Will Destley, a son, for the actual killing.

The dispatches, which told the story, said that the man was a son of the family that "only one of the family left at home was the old mother."

"Of course there isn't a bit of need for missionary work in Kentucky, no need for more churches and schools. Of course not. The heathen of Borooboola Gha need all the attention. But a father with his five sons wearing the garb of felons for life is an object lesson that might indicate another view of the masters as the correct view."

A TON OF MEXICO.

A personally conducted party will leave Cincinnati Friday 26th for a complete tour of Mexico. Everything first class and those accompanying are assured a pleasant and profitable trip. Address N. R. Warwick, Agent, 131 Vine street, Cincinnati, O.

JOB PRINTING!

WE PRINT
EVERYTHING
THAT CAN BE PRINTED:

PUBLIC LEDGER
PRINTERY,
MAYFIELD, KY.

How's This!

Offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Cataract that cannot be cured by Halle's Cuttermilk.

J. F. CHENEY & CO.,
Proprietors, Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in his business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligation made by them.

W. E. TAYLOR,
Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

WALDING, KIRK & MARVIN,
Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Cuttermilk is taken internally, acting directly on the body, and has the effects of the system. Price 25c. per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Testimonials free.

Mayfield Steam Laundry

AND DYE WORKS.

No. 13 Third street, Mayfield, Ky.

General Cleaning, Dyed and Pressed Hot and Cold Baths in connection.

INCOME TAX.

The Astounding Declaration of a Man Well Posted.

Provisions of the Law May Be Difficult in Being Carried Out.

Deputy Collectors Can Not Lawfully Discharge Duties Attestation of Appropriations Upon Them, so Taxpayer Can Easily Impose Upon the Collector

New York, May 5.—Having been informed that Mr. Thomas Harland, who was deputy commissioner of internal revenue while the former laws imposing an income tax were in force, thought it doubtful whether the government could collect the tax imposed by the new law, Mr. Harland, a reporter was sent to get his views.

Mr. Harland said: "An examination of the provisions of the recent law for the assessment and collection of the income tax leads me to the conclusion that it was extremely doubtful whether the government could successfully collect the tax if the taxpayers generally should stand upon their rights. As, however, any taxpayer could subject himself to a penalty if the law should prove unsound, I hesitated to advise any one to act on it until I had consulted other counsel. I have now discussed the matter with several of the leading lawyers in the city, and I find that they generally concur in my views."

"I have not undertaken in this interview to give authority for the several points, but an attorney who has the authority will convince any lawyer."

"First, that the deputy collectors can not lawfully discharge the duties attempted to be imposed upon them by the law."

"Second, that it is the duty of the collector to seek the taxpayer, and not the duty of the taxpayer to seek the collector in the first instance."

"Third, that the taxpayer may lawfully impose upon the collector the duty of making his return, instead of making it himself."

"Fourth, that the collector is responsible for the resolution offered by Mr. Manderson for the courtesy and impartiality with which Mr. Harris had served as president pro tem. of the senate."

"Fifth, that the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution."

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and the chair and returned his thanks for the flattering resolution.

"At twelve minutes to twelve the last enrolled bill was reported to the committee by the vice-president, but it seemed evident that he did not get the executive signature on time."

At this moment Mr. Voorhees and Mr. Sherman, the committee, and

